(1) _____ (2) _____ (3) _____

In order to make a Cabin Request, the Campers must be within a year of each other in age and be requested by both Families. Please note that cabins are arranged based on age and gender, as we divide Camp into Junior, Intermediate and Senior sections. This is to help ensure that campers are placed in the appropriate age grouping which limits the challenges that arise when there is someone too young or too old in a cabin grouping. We will make every effort to put your camper in a cabin with at least one of your requested friends and appreciate your understanding.

Participant Acknowledgement of Risk 2017

Participant Name: _____

My child and I have read a description of the camp activities my child is about to participate in and understand the hazards and risks of the intended activities related to the trip. Certain hazards and risks are inherent in camp activities and cannot be eliminated without destroying the unique character of the activities. These inherent risks are some of the same elements that contribute to the unique character of camp but can be the cause of destruction, loss or damage to equipment, personal property, personal injury, illness, suffering, or in extreme cases, permanent trauma or death.

Camp activities may take place in a wilderness environment and may include: rock and wall climbing, rappelling, bouldering, hiking, backpacking, high or low ropes course activities, swimming, whitewater rafting, zip lining, sea kayaking, canoeing, mountain biking, archery, dog sledding, snow shoeing, snowboarding, downhill and cross country skiing, fire building and cooking, and camping in remote, wilderness areas in developed and undeveloped campgrounds. Camp activities may also include transportation, sometimes at night, to and from Camp Summit. The participant may spend several nights outdoors.

In addition to the hazards and risks described above, the hazards and risks of the camp activities may also include, but are not limited to, the following: acts of other participants (including from the failure of other participants to follow instructions or obey safety regulations), manufacturers defects or malfunctions in equipment, weather conditions (including unforeseen, inclement or intemperate weather), consumption of food and drink, fire, first aid, emergency treatment, or other services provided.

Camp Summit will not have medical personnel, other than Wilderness First Responder certified instructors, at the location of the camp activities or at Camp Summit.

I acknowledge that engaging in camp activities may require a degree of skill and knowledge different than other activities of Camp Summit and that my child has responsibilities as a participant to act prudently and carefully.

I certify that my child is fully capable of participating in the camp activities. My child is in good health and physically fit and has not been advised by a physician not to participate in arduous physical activities. I know of no reason, health-related or otherwise, why my child is not capable of participating in the camp activities

I acknowledge that I have read and completed fully the Medical Form provided by Camp Summit and accept full responsibility for omissions, errors or out-of-date information on that form.

I fully understand and appreciate the risk of injury, illness, property loss or theft, and even death inherent in the camp activities. I further understand that unforeseen circumstances may arise that have not been identified.

I acknowledge that I have read the clothing and equipment list provided by Camp Summit, and accept full responsibility for inadequate clothing or equipment and for clothing and equipment which I fail to provide to my child.

I acknowledge that the staff of Camp Summit has been available to more fully explain to me the nature and physical demands of these camp activities and the inherent risks, hazards and dangers associated with them.

Therefore, in consideration of being permitted to participate in this activity, I assume all risks and accept full responsibility surrounding my child's participation in the camp activities, the transportation related to them and any activities undertaken as an adjunct thereto, which risks include illness, injury and death.

I have read and agree to the Participant Acknowledgement of Risk 2017.

Please allow for 3 weeks for the processing of refunds.

Camper Code of Conduct

Camp Summit is a fun place – independence and freedom are important at camp! In the spirit of community living, campers are expected to be respectful and mindful of others around them. Therefore, some of the basic rules and expectations (from home and school) are still valid and important at camp. All rules are designed around safety and respect. Campers are expected to take responsibility in caring for themselves and others. Campers are asked to respect the environment and the camp setting. The following behaviours or actions are NOT tolerated at Camp Summit: bullying and/or harassment, alcohol and/or drug consumption, smoking, use of profanity (swearing), theft, vandalism, and aggressive defiant/disorderly conduct. The Camp Director reserves the right to withdraw any camper without warning who, in their opinion, compromises the physical or emotional safety of any person at camp, or who is an immediate hazard to the safety of themselves or others. Camp Summit will also remove a camper who is negatively affecting the experience of another camper or group of campers.

Health & Safety

Campers should not come to Camp with known communicable diseases or health nuisances (such as chicken pox, lice, viral infections, rashes, fevers, flu symptoms etc.). On the first day of Camp, all campers will undergo a health screening upon check in to ensure they are healthy enough to attend Camp – this will include a head lice check and a series of health related questions at our screening tent. We ask that families contact our office in advance of Camp, if your child has been exposed to anything communicable within the 3 weeks of the start of your campers session. Together we will determine whether it is best for your camper to stay home for an extra day or so before arriving at Camp. We thank you in advance for your cooperation in keeping camp a healthy and safe environment for all children and staff.

Cabin Groups & Friend Requests

Campers are placed in a cabin group based on gender and age. Cabin group sizes are between 8-9 campers, per cabin. In order to make a Cabin Request, the Campers must be within a year of each other in age and be requested by both Families. This is ensure Campers are placed in the appropriate age group with their peers. Parents must understand that if they request children to be together who are more than a year apart, one of the campers will be with a group of children either much older or younger than their child. While this may seem acceptable, this age dynamic can have direct and negative impacts on the experiences of other campers in the cabin. In an effort to keep social cliques from forming, we are unable to accommodate more than three cabin mate requests per camper. Changes to cabin placements will not be accepted on the first day of Camp as this proves as a major disruption for the entire group of campers and staff who have settled into their accommodations for the week. We thank you for your patience and understanding of this.

I have read and agree to the Registration Notes listed above and understand the Cancellation/Refund Policies as detailed:
